Groundbreaking technological innovation breeds high-stakes litigation. As a result, the litigators involved in these cases face big stakes too.

Our unique custom search process allows us to find experts who have experience not only working on patent, copyright, trademark, and trade secret cases but also performing patent portfolio reviews across any industry. For every search, our research team seeks out both established and emerging experts who can help you secure a win.

Search Is Our Service

We perform a proactive custom search uniquely designed to provide expert candidates who meet your specific requirements. We excel at finding world-class experts in less time than it would typically take an attorney, allowing you more time to focus on your case. Our search is risk free. You pay only when the expert goes to work for you.

Confidence in Your Experts

We target the best experts, ones who are conflict free and available to work on your case. These experts are well-versed within their industries and can communicate effectively with you, your team, judges, and juries.
